SUFFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

Suffield, Connecticut

Dedication

MISS KLIMASZEWSKI, MR. ZAK, MRS. FAY

The years pass on; time ticks away; names slip from memory. But never throughout the entire parade of life shall we, the Class of 1961, forget the understanding with which our various troubles and problems have been met, the cheerfulness with which we have been greeted, or the generosity which we have been offered—these being three of the things which you, our class advisors, have so faithfully given us. Soon we shall depart to go our own separate ways, but there will remain with each and every one of us the imprint of our many experiences with you.

Thus, as a final appreciative gesture, we, the class of 1961, dedicate this book to you.

ADMINISTRATION

A school system is judged by its graduates. We hope and believe that the lives of the Class of 1961 will bring much credit to the Suffield Public Schools.

THIS IS LUNCH????!

TWO PARTS SULPHUR, THREE PARTS KNO₃, ONE PART . . .

WHERE ARE YOUR CANDLES?

LETTERS, WE GET LETTERS.

PUT THE BOOKS ASIDE AND GAB!!!

A TYPICAL DAY IN THE OFFICE.

HEY, HOW ABOUT GOING TO FRIENDLY'S?

A STRAIGHT EDGE SURE WOULD COME IN HANDY.

ANYTHING FOR MISS KLIM!!!

CAMERA SHY.

WHAT DO YOU MEAN IT'S SOUR?

Q. E. D.

I THOUGHT YOU SAID HE WOULD BOUNCE.

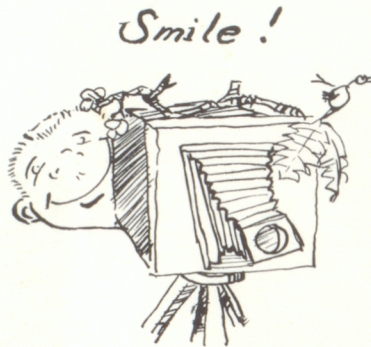

OH, MAN!

TAKE YOUR PICK.

UH, OH, NAUGHTY GIRL!!

WHAT DO YOU MEAN
WE GOT OUR APPLI-CATIONS MIXED UP???

THIS IS STUDYING?

CASUAL SHOT? LET'S ACT CASUAL.

THE VOICE OF AMERICA — MAY WE HAVE YOUR ATTENTION, PLEASE?

ELEMENTARY, MY DEAR WATSON.

I KNOW THEY'RE AROUND HERE SOMEWHERE.

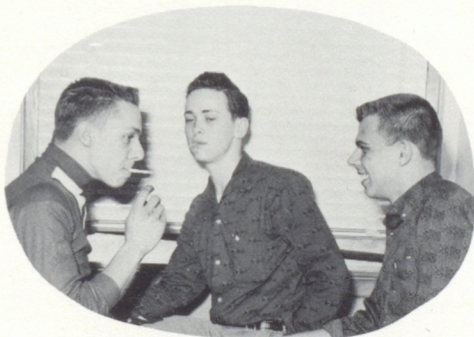

HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENTS?

TOUGH PROBLEM.

NEED SOME HELP?

THE PAUSE THAT REFRESHES.

TO POST AT ALL COST.

GOSSIP CENTER, U. S. A.

COFFEE BREAK IN CHEM LAB.

THOSE LAST MINUTE TOUCHES.

RELAX AND ENJOY IT.

OH, THAT “*#@”&! WEATHERMAN IS OFF AGAIN!!

REVENGE.

I GIVE UP, WHAT IS IT????

Last Will And Testament Of The Class Of 1961

We, the class of 1961, the omnipotent geniuses, the elogized clan, the undiminished, depart in all modesty from these halls, declaring this to be our final will and testament.

The Senior women leave their beauty to the Junior girls and the school lunches, to the Sophomore girls.

The Senior men leave their sports' record to the Junior boys and their integrity, to the Sophomore boys.

To Dr. Farris, Mr. Brown, Mr. Ryan, and the faculty we leave the memory of our inquisitive minds and smiling faces.

ELEANOR ANDERSON leaves the length of her skirts to Dorothy Jackson. PAUL BALDYGA leaves his back assignments to Gary Larson to catch up on. I, PATRICIA BANCROFT, leave to my brother, Ricky, my absentee slips. JOHN BARRY leaves his studious ways to Tommy Splain. NANCY BATAYTE leaves her outspoken manner to Jane Salisbury. I, CURTIS BELDEN, leave my woodchuck jawbone to Martha Raisbeck. GEORGE BELL-MORE leaves his panda blush to Mr. Ryan. KATHERINE BERRY leaves her subtle humor to Linda Ramsdell. MARY ANN BIALOMYZA leaves her picture smile to Peter Gregory. BONNIE BLAISDELL leaves her emotions to Miss Klem. I, KATHLEEN BLODGETT, leave my level head to Mr. Delaney. DIANE BOUCHER leaves her fake ponytail to Mr. Tanguay. PATRICIA BRUCE leaves her laugh still ringing. EDWARD BURKE leaves his quiet manner to Bobby Mandirola. THOMAS CARNEY leaves—with Bonnie. GERALD CEBULA leaves his ability to go steady to Dorothy Bialomyza. I, ROBERT CHASE, leave my goal kicks to a football player. ROBERT CLARK leaves his transmission sitting in the parking lot. DAVID CLARKE leaves his arms around Judy Johnson. ERNESTINE COLSON leaves her giggles in the locker room. I, THOMAS CONWAY, leave my jokes to Mrs. Fay. JOHN COOPER leaves a little of his conceit to Toby Moffett. I, DEBORAH COWLES, leave my large vocabulary to Teddy Morehouse. DAVID CRAIG leaves his piano playing to Gail Russell. CHESTER CYNOSKI leaves his manners to Stanley Miarecki. WALTER DEGRAY leaves gladly. DAVID DICKINSON leaves his code number to Richard Cassade. PHYLLIS DORMAN leaves her quiet voice to Patty Bielonko. JANYCE EDWARDS leaves her happy-go-lucky ways to Mrs. Parry. I, BETTIE JANE ERNST, leave my tippy toes to Leon Greski. I, LOUIS FAVREAU, leave my ability to lose things to Pam Eisold. I, LAWRENCE FOSS, leave, to go fishing and hunting. I, KENT FULLER, leave my smoking behind the gym to David Quag. I, MARGARET GALETTA, leave a peck of apples for Joan Casinghino to finish polishing. RAYMOND GALETTA leaves his ability to score goals to Peter Graughan. I, REBECCA GIBSON, leave my personality untarnished. I, JUDY ANN GRABINSKI, leave my membership in the "pirates" to Mary Crocker. MARY LOU GRABOWSKI leaves her Irish temper and that something special that makes her "Mary Lou" to Mr. Greenleaf. THERESA GRABOWSKI, leaves her envelopes addressed to Worchester to Nancy Calder. JACQUELINE GRAY leaves for the dentist as usual. I, MARY LOU GRAY, leave my gift of gab to anyone who can talk that much. LINSLEY GREGG, leaves for anywhere they will take her. SHIELA HALL leaves her conservative ways to Cheryl Hayes. VERNON HALL leaves his mathematical ability the same as ever. ROY MARRIMAN leaves Suffield High without a vital link. MERBLE HARRINGTON leaves Miss Valentine still talking to herself. RICHARD HARRIS leaves the soccer field strewn with bodies. RUSSELL HAVOURD leaves for some card lessons. JOHN HIERL leaves his silent way to Richard Gibson. GEORGE HINCKLEY leaves his business class of all girls. JANE HOLT leaves her bus load to Cheryl Underhill. ALICE HOPKINS leaves her sense of humor to anyone who can stand it. FRANK JACOBUS leaves. Poor, poor, school! DENNIS JENKINSON leaves his problems as well as his car to his sister Sharon. CATHERINE JOHNSON leaves her glasses to Dorothy Jackson so that she may be able to see what she is getting into. DAVID JORGENSEN leaves his comb to Mr. Lester. ROXANNE KALE leaves the memories of her ingenious capabilities to the school. DONALD KENNETT leaves his soccer shoes to John Rogalla.

FREDERICK LAFORGE leaves the parking lot in a cloud of dust. ROBERT LATONIE leaves, hoping he never has to return. DAVID LANDRY leaves his razor to Bill Lloyd. I, GEORGE LEEL, leave my musical ability to Gregg Magnuson. DAVID LILL leaves his manly appearance and mental weaknesses to anyone who can combine the two as well as he. CHARLES LINCOLN leaves the gang to form a new one. LEON LINK leaves on his roller skates. THEODORE LORD leaves his study halls with Mr. Ladroga to anyone who wants them. ANDREW LOVE leaves for better conditions. PAUL LUKAS leaves the teachers to his brother. DUNCAN MACBETH leaves as confused as ever. DALE MARTINICK leaves Susan's house to anyone who wants to make a quick exit from school. JANE MARTYN leaves her oboe to anyone who can afford reeds. I, JEFFERY MATUS, leave my height to John Hinckley. EVELYN MAYRAND leaves her skirts to anyone who can wear them. NOREEN MCCARTHY leaves her natural curly hair to Susan Walker. GARY MCQUILLAN leaves his magic personality to Mr. Ryan. I, DIANE MERRELL, leave my old lady laugh to David Quag. RONALD MEYERS leaves the "Kit" to Bruce Glasscock. RICHARD MILLER leaves voluntarily. RONALD MILLER leaves his short hair to Jeff Hundley. SUSAN MORGAN leaves her walk to anyone who can carry it. SUSAN MORRISON leaves her eyelashes to any freshman who needs a quick lesson in flirting. IRENE NODWELL leaves John's Foodtown to anyone who can stand it. NANCY ORR leaves her appetite to anyone who can eat that much. SALLY ANN OSOWIECKI leaves her ability to lose her glasses to Mrs. Fay. ELLOT PARKER leaves in a hurry. SUSAN PATTERSON leaves her hair styles and color to anyone not afraid to wear them. PAUL POCHRON leaves his cherry bombs in Mr. Brown's mailbox. DONNA PRATT leaves her glockenspiel to anyone who knows what it is. JUDY PRICE leaves Mrs.

Fay without a right arm. PEGGY GENE ROALF leaves her imagination to Miss Poirier. EDWARD RODZEN leaves Mr. Ladroga at last. PRISCILLA ROMANO leaves her car to anyone who can drive it. I, JUDY ROOT, leave for more kicks elsewhere. NANCY ROWELL leaves Problems of Democracy class feeling insecure. SANDRA RUSSELL leaves with Sonny, as usual. JOHN SAMSEL leaves his cowboy guns to the school. PATRICIA SCHIESSEL leaves wondering just what she did leave. MICHAEL SEPKO leaves with his radio. WILLIAM SHERIDAN leaves his bermuda shorts to Mr. Miela. THALIA SHERMAN leaves her headaches to anyone who wants them. JOHN SMITH leaves his size 13 shoe to Mr. Shields. CHESTER SOBIN-SKI leaves the school early as usual. CAROL STRATTON leaves her lunch box to the school. PENELOPE STILES leaves her unprepared speeches to Mrs. Morse. RICHARD STOUGHTON leaves Louis Grabowski to finish his chemistry experiments. JOHN SULLIVAN leaves his business ability to Miss Klem. I, ROBERT SULLIVAN, want to leave my—just to leave thanks. BARBARA TURNER leaves feeling relieved. CYNTHIA WALKER leaves her roving shoes to anyone who wants them. RAYMOND WALKER leaves his low ears to anyone who will take them. KATHLEEN WASHBURN leaves for Babbs and the sailors. LOUIS WISNESKI leaves a blush to Tommy Bazyk. JOHN ZENISKY leaves the smokers in the boy's basement unmolested.

Signed, sealed and delivered:

THE CLASS OF 1961

Class Prophecy 1961

Once upon a time in the kingdom of Suffield, there was an institution, by name, Suffield High School. Through the lofty doors of this citadel passed the leaders of the future. In those days, Suffield was just a small hamlet with a population of 5500. What a difference it was from the bustling metropolis it is today in 1970! Here comes a taxi; we han hop in and go now. Why, it's Bob Sullivan, driving a shiny new taxi from his yellow fleet.

First we'll visit our alma mater. It hasn't changed much, except for a new wing in the back, and the faculty, of course, is difference. We just saw in the Suffield Gazette News, owned by Paul Pochron, a list of new teachers. Here are some of the prominent names we noticed. The new superintendent of Schools is David Dickenson, and the principal of the high school is Kent Fuller. New members of the faculty include: Jane Martyn, Latin; Mary Low Grabowski, Spanish; Dick Miller, English; Tom Conway, Mathematics; Lois Wisneski, French; Louis Favreau, Chemistry; Judy Price, Business, Becky Gibson, Cookie Blodgett, Ray Galetta, and Mike Sepko, Physical Education; and Russell Havourd, golf coach; Larry Foss, Manual Training; Nancy Rowell, and Carol Stratton, Home Economics; Debby Cowles, Vocal Director; John Zenisky, Instrumental Director; Dick Harris, Art Director; Catherine Johnson, Driver Education. Other members of the staff are Eleanor Anderson, school secretary; Sheila Hall, school nurse; Penny Stiles, and Cynthia Walker, dieticians; Pat Bancroft, librarian; Walter De-Gray, head of the guidance department; Dave Lill, head janitor, and Bill Sheridan his aid. After driving around the grounds and observing the new baseball and football fields, where the team is working out, we head towards the shopping center. Oops! Here comes a train; so we'll have to stop. Can you imagine who are the chief engineers that we see through the window? They're Donna Pratt and Ed Harriman!

My, the shopping center certainly has grown since we were in school! In place of the three stores that once were here, we see rows and rows of bright, shiny stores; Craig and Nodwell Supermarket; "The Bread Basket" Bakery, run by Janice Edwards; "The Gangrene Thumb" florist shop, operated by Bonnie Blaisdell, Diane Merrell, and John Barry; "The Bottom of The Pot" coffee huose, run by Bob Sutton. Look, there's a new Friendly's! We hear that its owned by Judy Ann Grabinski and Mary Ann Bailomyza and that Sandra Russell and Sue Morgan work there. Here's a Radio and TV repair shop, operated by John Smith and Carl Tootill; a men's haberdashery, "The Sharp Crease," owned by Vernon Hall; "The Dull Razor," run by Leon Link; "New World Art Gallery," owned by Randy Walker, who sells the works of Dave Jorgenson. Over to our right is a new beauty salon, "Beauty Alley", the head stylist of which is Dave Landry; other hairdressers under him are Ann Swanson and Barbara Turner. Looking in the window of Peggy Roalf's bookstore, "The Musty Shelf," we see on the best seller lists are two books written by Suffield greats: "Suffield Place," by Sally Ann Osowiecki; "The Techniques of Love," by Andy Love. Across the street is a photographer who does the pictures for the SHS yearbooks now, John L. Sullivan. Friendly's has competition across the way—"The Leaning Tower of Pizza," run by Toug Tower and Mary Lou Gray.

Since election time is drawing near, we see campaign posters plastered all around.

Some of our local politicians running for office are George Bellmore for Town Selectman; Bob Chase and John Samsel, opposing each other for a seat in the State General Assembly; and Ed Rodzen for Tax Collector of Suffield. We heard that Duncan Macbeth has recently become the public accountant for the town treasury.

Looking across the street we see a new establishment for Suffield "The Tarnished Star" Theater, managed by Chet Cynoski. Currently showing is "I Was A Teenage Cassanova" starring Woody Jacobus; also in this Academy Award winning film are Donald Kennett, Pat Bruce, Gary McQuillan, and Rozanne Kalb. The ticket girl is Terry Grabowski; the projectionist, Ronnie Miller; the ushers, Danny Buckavich and Eddie Burke; the matrons in the ladies' room are Dale Martinck and Evelyn Mayrand. Over there—ah—we see our popcorn girl, Ernie Colson, snatching a handful of popcorn behind the manager's back.

As we leave the shopping center, we come to Suffield's garage row. To our right is the "Suffield Volks Wagon Service Center", owned by Denny Jenkinson. and "The Rusty Joint Auto Body", run by Fred LaForge, Robert Latonie, and Elliott Parker. George Hinckley has taken over his uncle's Esso Station.

Driving out to West Suffield, we see a familiar face at Margie's Fruit Stand. Here comes Robert Clark bringing in a truck a new load of shiny red apples.

Here on our right is an establishment dear to our hearts, "Buster's Snack Bar". which is run by Pricilla Romano.

As we come up North Grand Street, we see before us a dazzling glass and aluminum structure, the Suffield General Hospital. We've heard that one of the resident doctors is Ronnie Meyers. The supervisor of nurses is Kay Berry, and the nurses under her are Jackie Gray, Terry Sherman, and Lin Gregg. The chemical technician is Nancy Orr. Other members of the staff are Pat Schiessl and Alice Hopkins, secretaries, and Judy Szczepanik, receptionist. Look! There is a patient on the operating table—Chuck Lincoln. His doctor is the famous surgeon, Betti Jane Ernest. The X-ray technician is Jane Holt.

Traveling on back to the center, we notice a huge, sprawling farm, one of the largest in the tobacco industry today, which is owned by Ricky Stoughton and Tommy Carney.

Driving through the center, we see by the traffic light Suffield's new Chief of Police, Paul Baldyga; other new members are Chet Sobinski, John Cooper, Jerry Cebula, and Paul Lukas. Nancy Baytate directs the kiddies across the crowded streets. Also on the force are Judy Root and Susan Patterson as truant officers.

On the Community Bulletin Board we see some coming attractions: the internationally famous dance team of Sue Morrison and Teddy Lord; also coming, the famous baseball star, John Hierl and his manager, Jeff Matus, Merble Harrington in a lecture at the church hall Saturday night. Her theme is "My Life as a Foreign Correspondent".

Today is the grand opening of Clark's Department Store. Phyllis Dorman is the advertising manager, and Diane Boucher, Noreen McCarthy, and Cathy Washburn are sales ladies.

Now after seeing our town and all the graduates of '61, we know that even with all these changes, the people are the same ones we knew back at Suffield High, once upon a time.

Those

CRAZY

Times

Class History

When we entered Suffield High as freshmen, we found that our class was partially composed of East Granby students. We enjoyed meeting so many more students and we welcomed them into our classes and extra-curricular activities. Later in the year, we were all very glad to hear the news that these students would stay to graduate with us.

In late October, the freshmen entering the Latin Club were initiated. They were a sight with their pigtails, bows, pant legs rolled up, and their pillowcases filled with books.

We were fortunate enough to have some of our boys playing varsity sports. Also, many members of our class belonged to the band.

That year our class officers were President, Dave Lill; Vice-president, Woody Jacobus; Secretary, Judy Price; and Treasurer, Becky Gibson.

Our sole money-raising project was to hold a record hop. We netted an average amount of money from this dance.

The first thing we did when we returned in the fall of our sophomore year was to elect our class officers, who were President, Dave Lill; Vice-president, Cookie Blodgett; Secretary, Judy Price; and Treasurer, Becky Gibson.

The big day of the year was late fall when we received our class rings.

To add to our treasury, we sold all occasion greeting cards.

Our sophomore dance, "Winter Wonderland", was held on December 20.

As far as sports went, Suffield shared the co-championship with Hale-Ray in soccer.

This same year, a community drive was held to buy new uniforms for our band. The drive was a success, and the band members looked absolutely dashing in their new uniforms.

In our junior year, our president of the past four years was defeated by Eddie Harriman. In the vice-presidential spot, we found Gary McQuillan. Two officers who remained in the respective offices of secretary and treasurer were Judy Price and Becky Gibson.

November 23 was the day we had eagerly been waiting for. It was bright and early that morning that we met at the Windsor Locks train station to go to New York City to visit the United Nations. After our tour of the building and luncheon at the U.N. dining room, we were free to roam the city, until our meeting at Grand Central.

About Christmas-time, we sold wrapping paper, ribbon, and cards.

The night of March 12, 1960, Suffield High played St. Anthony in the finals of the basketball tournament in the UConn field house. It was a thrilling and close game, but we came out of it as "State Champions."

Those who were chosen for the All-State Band from the Class of '61 were Curtis Belden, George Bellmore, Becky Gibson, Woody Jacobus, David Lill, and John Zenisky.

About that time, the delegates to Girls' and Boys' States were also chosen. Judy Price and Donna Pratt were to attend Laurel Girls' State, and Eddie Harriman and Dave Lill were to attend Nutmeg Boys' State.

The Junior Prom, "Bali Ha'i", was held on May 14. It went beautifully under the guidance of our general chairman, Eddie Harriman. Eddie Walenta's Band chose Bonnie Blaisdell as queen, and the eight attendants in her court were Judy Root, Nancy Batayte, Roxanne Kalb, Donna Pratt, Becky Gibson, Patsy Bruce, Sue Morgan, and Terrv Grabowski.

Cookie Blodgett was to be the captain of the cheerleaders the following year.

Then came our year! We didn't know exactly what we'd be confronted with, but we were determined to do our best in every case. David Lill started off his year by regaining the office of president from Eddie. The vice-presidency was captured by John Samsel. Becky and Judy were to carry on the duties of the respective offices of treasurer and secretary once more.

Very early in the year, our editors began planning for the yearbook. It certainly was a big project, into which a great deal of hard work went.

The Senior Patrol elected John Samsel as its captain. This new patrol had to put up with something new — fire doors. Some tackled the problem of bottle necks at their posts by using door stops. The students didn't regard these doors very highly at first. It became tiresome pushing and pulling an average of six doors between every class.

In the fall, our magazine drive was held. We broke all records. The three top salesmen were John Samsel, Judy Price, and Lin Gregg.

The students accepted into the National Honor Society were Nancy Batayte, Mary Ann Bialomyza, Cookie Blodgett, Bettie Jane Ernst, Becky Gibson, Eddie Harriman, Merble Harrington, Woody Jacobus, Dave Lill, Jane Martyn, Gary McQuillan, Nancy Orr, Sally Ann Osowiecki, Donna Pratt, Judy Price, Penny Stiles, John Sullivan, and John Zenisky.

Judy Price was the winner of the D.A.R. Good Citizen Award, and Susan Morrison that of the Betty Crocker Homemaking of Tomorrow Contest.

John Zenisky made the All-Eastern Band, which is composed of the best musicians in All-State Bands from Maine to Maryland.

Suffield played Hale-Ray at Wesleyan University for the state soccer championship and were "State Champs."

The Third Annual Senior Ball, "Wonderland By Night", was held February 11. We had Eddie Walenta's Band again. Under the direction of John Samsel, the ball was well planned. The queen was Judy Root. Her attendants were Nancy Batayte, Cookie Blodgett, Margie Galetta, Lin Gregg, Roxanne Kalb, Susan Morrison, Nancy Orr, and Joan Petrauskas.

We stood behind the Annual Variety Show, as many of the senior classes before us had done.

We were the last class to take a trip to Washington. We left early Monday morning, April 24, by bus. After touring Washington and Williamsburg, we started home on Thursday, April 27, tired and happy. This was truly an experience we will never forget.

The close of our high school career came in mid-June with our banquet and finally our big night—graduation. As is always the case, we left with different emotions. Some of us were joyous of the fact that we were finally out, and others of us were sorry that those wonderful high school years could never be lived again. Some of us were off on our own to earn a living and others of us were off for the gates of higher learning. We will always remember our classmates and Mrs. Fay, Miss Klim, and Mr. Zak who stood by us during our six years at SHS.
